

Want to play some fun and relaxing bridge while earning red masterpoints?

Why not try the League Teams 2010?

The League Teams is a great way to meet new people in a very social environment. Matches are typically played in people's homes, with a 24 board match followed by a delicious supper provided by the home team.

And for those less experienced players, we now have a new Division - the 49ers - for those players with less than 50 masterpoints. This is a great introduction to teams bridge, and loads of fun.

Why not grab your friends, form a team and come and join us?

BAWA League Teams 2010 Information Sheet

The League Teams is a great way to meet new people in a very social environment. Matches are typically played in people's homes, with a 24 board match followed by a delicious supper provided by the home team.

1. You can have a team of up to 8 players, with any 4 playing matches. There is no minimum or maximum number of matches required to be played by each member.
2. There are four divisions –
 - a. Siesta Division, where matches are played in the afternoon,
 - b. Evening Division, where matches are played in the evenings.
 - c. 49ers, where all team members and substitutes must have less than 49 masterpoints – a great way to get your toes in the water.
 - d. South West, where scheduled matches are held in Bunbury and surrounds.
3. Entry fee is $50 per team. There is no table money.
4. This is a red masterpoint event.
5. The winning team from each Division will receive 4 one year subscriptions to Australian Bridge.
6. Entries must be received by the end of February.
7. There is one match scheduled per month. Dates and times are mutually agreed by the two team captains. They can be held outside the scheduled month with the agreement of both Captains. On the rare occasion where the teams cannot reach a mutually agreeable time, the Captain of the Home Team proposes 4 dates, of which no more than 2 must be on the same day of the week. The Away Captain agrees a date within a week of receiving the proposed dates.
8. All matches must be completed by 30th November.
9. There is no requirement for team members to be ABF registered players.

Why not form a team and come and join the fun?
